

DEPARTMENT W FFA CHAPTERS

FFA Judging Contest Banners
Sponsored by:
Dairy – Grays Harbor Dairy Women

1. All boys and girls entering exhibits must be properly enrolled members of an FFA chapter. An official membership list of all participating chapters must be provided to the fair office by July 31.
2. All exhibits must be entered between 9:00 a.m. and 6:00 p.m. Tuesday, prior to opening day, unless otherwise stated. No early entries will be permitted in the barn. FFA exhibits (including animals, tack boxes, and decorations) may not be removed from the barns before 7:00 p.m. Sunday, closing day of the fair.
3. Refer to the general rules for animal health requirements.
4. No animal or article will be allowed to compete for more than one premium, nor shall be entered in more than one class, except in herds or pens.
5. Exhibitors will be responsible for their own exhibits. The Fair Management will not assume liability for loss or damage to exhibits.
6. All entries must be shown by the owner, unless it is a chapter owned project. Chapter owned projects will be judged for ribbon placing only (no premium money will be paid). Official chapter members must do herdsmanship on their own animals or premium money will be forfeited.
7. In the instance where two or more members work together to complete a project, the listed premium points will be divided between the members.
8. Livestock to be exhibited must be owned by the exhibitor and records kept after May 15, current year. Exceptions to this rule must receive written permission from their FFA Superintendent.
9. Entries for all animals must be sent by July 15 to the Grays Harbor County Fair, PO Box 1229, Elma WA 98541.
10. FFA members registered in Grays Harbor County Chapters and out of county Chapters may show their livestock in open class competition, with permission of the open class superintendent, their local FFA Advisor, and the FFA Superintendent, provided that an open class entry form has been completed and mailed to the fair office with the appropriate stall fee before the deadline. Please indicate on the entry form that this is an FFA animal and will be housed with the chapter. Refer to open class rules
11. Each exhibitor is required to furnish their own bedding, straw, grain, and hay. Initial bedding will be supplied by the fair. Exhibitor must clean their stall space within two days of the closing of the fair. Failure to do this will result in the forfeiture of premiums.
12. Each exhibitor is responsible for the cleanliness of the barn area assigned to them.
13. For those who are camping at the fairgrounds, please refer to the camping rules elsewhere in the Exhibitor Guide.
14. Dairy and beef exhibitors may enter up to six animals. More than six animals requires superintendent approval. Sheep, swine, and goat exhibitors may enter up to five animals. On animal entry form exhibitors may include up to two additional animals named as alternates if space.
15. All animal exhibitors must enter fitting and showmanship with their own animals, except by a ruling of the section superintendent and fair board.
16. Any undesirable conduct by FFA exhibitors will result in the forfeiture of premium money.

17. Each FFA exhibitor with livestock must purchase a Season Exhibitor Pass. Exhibitors will not be eligible for premium money until this purchase has been made. Only exhibitors who have the need of being on the fairgrounds in an official capacity for five days are eligible to purchase this pass. Forms will be provided to the FFA chapter advisors prior to the fair. The deadline for purchasing passes is July 15.
18. Special one day tickets and car passes for FFA judging teams must be secured from the Fair Office by July 15.
19. All FFA livestock exhibitors will either judge in the livestock contest or handle animals for the Livestock Judging Contest on Wednesday.

DIVISION A FITTING AND SHOWING

Superintendent – Christi Kershaw

The purpose of the fitting and showmanship contest is to create more interest in and a better knowledge of proper fitting, training, and showing of animals. All training and preparation of the animals, both prior to and during the fair, must be done by the contestant.

DIVISION B FFA LIVESTOCK DEMONSTRATIONS

Non-livestock FFA or 4H members will care for and monitor an educational livestock exhibit. Livestock will be on display for observation and education during the fair, such as sow and litter in FFA Exhibit building. It is encouraged to have a team of two exhibitors to provide for busy times and breaks. Exhibitors are responsible for answering questions from the public and ensuring livestock is comfortable and safe. The major feeding and watering will be the responsibility of the owner.

The team of two non-livestock exhibitors will man the exhibit beginning at 10 a.m. until 9 p.m. with periodic breaks. The non-livestock exhibitors will be awarded premium points and ribbons for their team of two exhibitors when providing coverage for busy times and breaks. Exhibitors are responsible for answering questions from the public and ensuring livestock is comfortable and safe. The major feeding education demonstration and public relation skills.

Blue	100 points per day per team of two

Poultry Rules

- This section is open to all FFA Members.
- Fowl will be exhibited in wire cages provided by the fair. Entries are subject to space available.
- Transportation cages shall be removed from the fairgrounds between time of entry and time of removal of the exhibits.
- Only two entries will be permitted by each exhibitor in each class, per variety, except as stated otherwise, maximum of 16 birds per exhibitor.
- Exhibitors will be limited to one crossbreed per exhibitor.
- Birds shown in a trio or pen cannot be shown as individuals.
- A trio is two females and one male; a pair is one male and one female of the same breed & variety.
- A pen is three birds of the same sex, age, breed and variety.
- The words "old", "hen", and "cock" mean birds over one year of age.

10. Poultry will be inspected for lice. Poultry having lice or showing signs of sickness or excessive dirt will be REFUSED entry by the superintendent and/or vet.
11. To prevent the possibility of spreading infectious diseases, it is recommended that all poultry exhibited at the fair not be returned to the farm.
12. All birds exhibited must show maturity. Chickens must be at least 16 weeks old, with the exception of live meat birds.
13. Poultry injured after being checked in by the superintendent should not be disqualified for that year, but the bird cannot be exhibited again.
INSTRUCTION TO JUDGES:
A. All standard egg production breeds will be judged on the basis of production. Such birds may be dubbed or debeaked. All meat breeds will be graded in USDA grades. Chicken, turkey, duck, and goose classes shall be judged by the American Standard of Perfection and USDA grades.
B. The judge may consider an entry not worthy of an award.
C. Feathers of one wing may be clipped to prevent flight. However, this may be considered a disqualification at other shows.
14. All entries will be classified by breed. Only recognized breeds are eligible for show except classes 11 & 17. The breed & variety must be stated on the entry form.
15. All exhibitors will be required to perform one shift of barn duty each day of the fair, or premium money will be withheld.
16. It is mandatory for all poultry exhibitors to enter Fitting and Showing and Judging Contests.
17. There will be no cross-exhibiting between FFA, 4-H, and Open Youth Poultry.
18. Entry forms are due at the fair office no later than July 15th.
19. The poultry exhibitors must present a certificate to the superintendent prior to check in that certifies the entries are Pullorum-Typhoid clean New State Requirement
20. No more than 25 of each species allowed per exhibitor, exception rabbit or bird with babies count as 1 entry.
